

Mortgage Lending Compliance

August 2024

In recent years, the mortgage lending business has faced economic and financial headwinds. With a mixed outlook for the remainder of 2024, it's important to protect your institution's profit and portfolio by understanding mortgage lending laws and regulations and making compliant loans.

Sign up for BCG's Mortgage Lending Seminar to get the mortgage lending compliance basics – HMDA (who's covered and what are some of the common violations), TRID and the flood insurance regulations. Since the basics often contain the most compliance traps, these refreshers are not only helpful for anyone who is new to mortgage lending, but for the most seasoned compliance professionals as well.

Get up to date on mortgage lending regulatory developments and various California laws and learn from recent fair lending developments and enforcement. It will be an information-loaded Seminar that anyone in the mortgage lending field will not want to miss.

We have scheduled only Recording Playbacks with Live Q&As for this Seminar.
