

Electronic Banking

April 2013

Advancements in electronic banking have expanded the scope and nature of the products and services offered by financial institutions. In this full-day seminar, we will discuss an institution's obligations that arise from this expansion, including compliance responsibilities for mobile banking, payment systems and funds transfers.

We will also address a multitude of statutes and regulations relating to electronic banking, such as Regulation E, the NACHA rules and the UCC. Our program will also cover some of the contract and disclosure requirements related to these rules.

Finally, we will discuss the recent developments concerning the new Remittance Transfer Rule and its multitude of amendments and effective dates.
