

Aldrich & Bonnefin, PLC*, Counsel for Bankers' Compliance Group® Presents
CFPB's New Small Business Lending Data Collection Rule & Fair Lending for Commercial Lenders

October 2023

Dodd-Frank Act Section 1071 amended the Equal Credit Opportunity Act to require financial institutions to compile, report, and maintain specified information regarding certain women-owned, minority-owned, or small business loan applicants, in accordance with regulations to be issued by the CFPB. On March 30, 2023, the CFPB issued a final rule amending Regulation B to implement changes to ECOA Section 1071 (the "Final Rule").

In this Seminar, we will discuss which institutions are subject to the new Final Rule, the details and requirements of the Final Rule (such as the data collection requirements, firewall requirements, reporting data to the CFPB, etc.), and some best practices in terms of complying with the Final Rule. We will also discuss the Final Rule's impact on lenders, such as fair lending issues, possible reputational concerns, changes to the application process for small business loans, and training staff. Additionally, we will cover some examples and case studies during the Seminar.

However, it should be noted that while a Texas district court recently granted an injunction to temporarily delay the compliance dates of the Final Rule for those lenders that are members of the American Bankers Association or the Texas Bankers Association, the compliance dates for those lenders are currently expected to only be delayed for about six months to one year, and the delay currently does not cover all lenders that are otherwise subject to the Final Rule (Texas Bankers Ass'n v. Consumer Fin. Prot. Bureau, No. 7:23-CV-00144 (July 31, 2023)). Finally, given the complexity, size and impact of the Final Rule, it is recommended that lenders promptly start taking steps to prepare to comply with the Final Rule (including those lenders that are covered by the court's injunction temporarily delaying the compliance dates).

Joel N. Cook, Esq., a principal of Aldrich & Bonnefin, PLC*, joined the firm in October 2011. As manager of the firm's Corporate Practice Group, Mr. Cook's practice focuses on corporate law, commercial lending matters (including commercial and real estate loans, loan participations and loan workouts) as well as regulatory compliance. Mr. Cook obtained his law degree from Loyola Law School of Los Angeles. Prior to becoming an attorney, Mr. Cook worked as a banker for nine years in various roles with a large national bank and had extensive dealings with the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency.
