Under rules that became effective in 2014, all “loan originators” of dwelling-secured credit must receive training on state and federal laws applicable to their job duties. This requirement appears as part of the loan originator qualification requirements in Regulation Z. It applies to all residential mortgage loan originators, both employees and third-party mortgage brokers. The training requirements apply to a loan originator regardless of whether he or she meets the definition of a “mortgage loan originator” under the SAFE Act. Under Regulation Z, the term “loan originator” is defined broadly and includes any employee who takes an application for a residential mortgage or offers, arranges or assists a consumer in obtaining or applying for a dwelling-secured, closed-end loan. The rule is limited to closed-end mortgages; home equity lines of credit are not covered.

This two-hour Webinar will provide training that is relevant to all loan originators and will help fulfill their training requirements under Regulation Z. Under Regulation Z, training must cover both federal and state law that apply to the LO's job responsibilities. This Webinar will cover both federal and state law.

Highlighted areas will include:

Regulation B:

- Appraisal availability rules
- Adverse action rules

Regulation Z

- Coverage and exemptions
- TRID basics
- Ability-to-repay rule basics
- Right of rescission

Flood Insurance Basics

California Law

- Appraisal availability rules for subordinate liens
- Anti-discrimination developments (the Holden Act, Unruh Act and new Fair Appraisal Notice)
