Presented by Counsel for Bankers' Compliance Group®
ALDRICH & BONNEFIN, PLC

In an attempt to avoid the time, cost and complications associated with going through probate, it is very commonplace today for people to create family trusts and place their assets, including deposit accounts, in the trust. What's more, the trusts themselves are becoming increasingly more complicated, especially when the death of a trustor triggers a split of the trust into multiple trusts.

As a result, financial institutions face more and more questions on how to deal with trusts and trustees. This in turn requires the institution employees to have a better and more detailed working knowledge of the law and operational requirements applicable to trusts.

Join us for this Webinar as we discuss trusts in great detail and help address the issues associated with providing financial services to trusts in both the deposit operations and lending contexts.

As with all of our Webinars, registrants will be able to download a detailed discussion outline to refer to during the program.

Highlights:

- The parties to a trust
- The practical difference between a revocable and irrevocable trust
- Power and authority of the trustee
- Liability when the trustee exceeds that power and authority
- The ability of a trustee to grant a power of attorney
- Proper completion of a Certification of Trust
- How to handle the death of a trustee and a trustor
- Issues when a marital trust splits into sub-trusts
